Charles - Thanks, I've completed to SOW for the second "new" amendment for TO-035. I should have it all (IGCE, SOW, TDD) ready for Scott as early as this Thursday. I'm in negotiations all day tomorrow. Hopefully, you will see something from contracting next week. Let me know, if you don't. Mike

I just double-checked with our finance department, and through yesterday, it was $33,520.67.

This includes recent billings for the review of the Kinross 104(e) and the Sunnyside document trips/meetings.

Subject: Question

How much funds are remaining in WA-035?

I believe approx. $34 - 35K?

Thanks, Mike

Gents, FYI, also please provide the minutes from last week's mgt. This will aid me in explaining to Scott and Contracting what we are planning to do. Thanks

Richard,

Tomorrow and Wednesday should be fine for document review. Let's plan to talk tomorrow about any specific procedures we may want to follow when the documents are scanned.

Regards,

Joe Middleton

Joe and Scott – The EPA team met with our contractor on Thursday, they will be providing us with an estimate of the cost for scanning most of the documents Sunnyside has provided. Once we get that estimate and it has been approved, our contractor will then take bids for a subcontractor to perform the scanning. Are there any specific procedures or steps you need our contractor or subcontractor to follow in regards to these documents?

I would like to come over tomorrow and Wednesday from 1 to 4 both days to look through a few more boxes. Will that be possible?

Thanks
